

INTRODUCING HABITAT'S NEW

TRAILVIEW

neighborhood

Our new neighborhood on the B-Line Trail is the second Habitat neighborhood in Monroe County.

35 FAMILIES will live in Trail View

ONE COMMUNITY
green space

Trail View Neighborhood Association will vote to make the space into a garden, play area or a combination of the two.

The children of Habitat homeowners demonstrate:

↑ 7%

improvement in reading test scores

↑ 9%

improvement in math test scores

↑ 62%

increased likelihood to acquire a college education

↑ 116%

increased likelihood to graduate from college

MONEY MATTERS. After taking the required money management class series, Habitat homeowners' confidence in their ability to manage money increases more than 130%.

WALK ON! Trail View's proximity to downtown Bloomington will allow homeowners to walk or bike to popular spots.

Walking distance in minutes

5 Butler Park 7 Fairview Elementary School 8 Farmers' Market 10 Mills Pool 11 Downtown Square

Habitat for Humanity of Monroe County

monroecountyhabitat.org/about/trailview

TRAILVIEW neighborhood

THANK YOU !

For making this possible! Your generosity is building a future for the Nehus and McCulley families – and their 33 neighbors!

SAVE THE DATE

To celebrate and tour the Trail View neighborhood on Saturday, May 16 from 4:30-6:00 pm. Learn more about the new neighborhood at www.monroecountyhabitat.org/about/trailview.

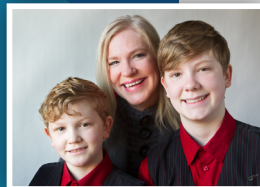

MEET THE FIRST TRAIL VIEW FAMILIES

The Nehus and Grieb Family

Scott and Emily are excited to walk to work together at IU. Tyler and his service dog, Niella, are looking forward to taking long walks together on the B-Line.

The McCulley Family

Ijah works full time, attends college part time, and is a mom to two boys. She is looking forward to gardening in her own yard in the neighborhood. Kilean & Liam love outdoor activities and are looking forward to riding their bikes to school.

213 E. Kirkwood Avenue
Bloomington, IN 47408